Here is an exciting opportunity for you to get your flyers, brochures and promotional gifts to the show attendees as they enter the show.

IEI will prepare and distribute these bigasalloutdoors.com bags at the show entrance, containing marketing material from you.

This is a cost-effective way for you to distribute samples, coupons and other sales incentives to show visitors.

For a fee of $500 for 10,000 inserts (5¢/each), you can make sure your message is in the bag that goes home with your potential customers. We can even assist with creating your inserts.
